

June 2010

Student Integration & Validation

to support our System Validation Team, we are looking for a highly motivated student

Main Tasks:

- Design and implementation on our test framework
- Remote control of our development platform
- Control of measurement equipment
- Support of our validation tasks

Requirements:

- You are studying computer science, electrical engineering or similar subjects
- You are team-oriented
- You are willing to work with new standard documents
- Knowledge of one or more of the following:
 - TCP/IP networks
 - Wireshark dissectors
 - Java
 - SVN
 - Matlab/Octave scripting
 - Cellular networks
 - Remote control of measurement equipment via VISA or similar interfaces

If you are interested in this job posting, please send your application to: jobs@bluwo.com

Blue Wonder Communications is an independent design house focusing on next generation mobile broadband LTE solutions and serving the telecommunications and semiconductors industries. The core competencies include mobile broadband modem design, OFDM based system development and low power semiconductors design. Blue Wonder Communications was founded in December 2008 and is located in Dresden, Germany, in the heart of Silicon Saxony.